reader request: yellow throw pillows

SEPTEMBER 13, 2010

tags: decorate, interior design, throw pillow, yellow pillow

my friends, m & p, just bought an adorable fixer upper for their first home. they are a renovation dream team — m has impeccable taste and p is a master carpenter. one of m's favorite colors is yellow and she asked me to help her locate yellow throw pillows for their living room. m & p have some differences of opinion when it comes to choosing pillows — m has more traditional, feminine taste while p has more of an eclectic aesthetic. so i wanted to balance their preferences and match the sofa, chairs and rug (it's a gorgeous madeline weinrib rug purchased from lotus bleu, one of my fav boutiques and interior design shops). who knew there were so many yellow pillows out there! here are the options that i came up with in various color stories...please let me know which one you like best!!
